Prayer for the day

O Christ,
You call us but never ensnare us;
show us what it means to leave self behind and follow you all our days.
Teach us to trust you enough to give you everything as raw material for your work
of healing and reconciliation in the world;
for your love's sake. Amen

Angela Ashwin

Friday 5th July Live@All Hallows - we're excited to confirm that our next LAAH gig is on 5th July, with The Wonderful Sound of the Cinema Organ headlining, and Pete Greenwood and band in support. This gig is a Fundraiser for Tidal, a campaigning group that works to support, coordinate and grow global activism in Leeds: "Debt, trade, pollution, biodiversity, resource depletion, water scarcity, food security, poverty, climate change... The number of big issues just keeps on growing, threatening our children's futures and the lives of the most vulnerable people on the planet. That's why Tidal's here."

The Wonderful Sound of the Cinema Organ present a unique sonic and visual experience, bringing the nostalgic warmth of vintage jazz influences and archive footage projections right up to date with a captivating and highly danceable contemporary edge. With an all-live setup comprising string, vocal, horn and rhythm sections. Described as "fresh and alive" and weaving "a magical spell" by God Is In The TV, their "fluid arrangements draw upon the more traditional aspects of manouche jazz, Afro-American gospel and southern soul"

In support is Pete Greenwood, Headingley-based singer-songwriter whose 2008 debut Sirens has been described as "less of an album, more of a sort of musical trellis; Currently writing and recording his sophomore album (including doing some recording with LAAH's very own sound engineer!), and playing live throughout the UK, Pete's new single is "The 88"

Tickets £6 advance from eventbrite, £7 on the door

Seeking Justice book : Some of us are meeting every 2 or 3 weeks to discuss this new book by Keith Hebden – want to know more? Ask Paul... Next meeting at Paul's house on Tuesday 18th

Reflection
Descriptions of Heaven and Hell
by Mark Jarman

The wave breaks
And I'm carried into it.
This is hell, I know,
Yet my father laughs,
Chest-deep, proving I'm wrong.
We're safely rooted,
Rocked on his toes.

Nothing irked him more Than asking, "What is there Beyond death?"
His theory once was
That love greets you,
And the loveless
Don't know what to say.

PARISH PANTRY: If you can remember to bring dried food or tins to church so Steve can donate them to people who need extra help just put them in the red box at back of church or drop off at the Vicarage. There is loads of need in our local area.
