

ALL HALLOWS

A Church of the Rainbow People of God

25th May 2014

Sixth Sunday of Easter

President

Rev David Randolph-Horn

Preacher

Jan Betts

Readings

Psalm 66:8-20

Acts 17:22-31

John 14:15-21

Prayer for the day

Open our hearts to your power moving around us and between us and within us, until your glory is revealed
in our love of both friend and enemy,
in communities transformed by justice and compassion,
and in the healing of all that is broken.

Amen.

God said: 'I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the bond between me and the earth.' And Desmond Tutu said, 'We are the Rainbow People of God.'

Please pray for....

- Bob who has labyrinthitis and is receiving treatment which he hopes will help
- Sameer, as he deals with feelings of hopelessness
- Betsy and David, for health and healing
- Mabel Wilson, Roul and Kay who miss church but cannot get here without support
- Give thanks that Jack Parkes has been recommended for ordination. Thank you for all the support that Jack and Rachel have received.
- A priest who will join us to help lead and minister

The wider community....

- All who use our building during the week – break dancers, the yoga groups, meditation group, OWLS, Community Project
- Members of Hyde Park Methodist and for their community shop and youth work
- Students undergoing exams this month

For justice, peace and healing in the world....

- For the girls abducted in northern Nigeria, for their families and for those searching for them, and for peace and justice throughout the country
- For the people of La Concha in Nicaragua
- For national leaders that they may act wisely over the situation in Ukraine
- Those people affected by the flooding in Serbia and Bosnia
- Women and children held in detention in Yarlswood Immigration Removal Centre
- For the changing political arena in our country

PRAYERS: If you have a request you want included in this bulletin email bulletin@allhallowsleeds.org.uk to let Helen know.

Reflection

“Modern society calls the beggar ‘bum’ and ‘panhandler’ and gives him the bum's rush. But the Greeks used to say that people in need are the ambassadors of the gods.”

–Peter Maurin, co-founder of the Catholic Worker movement, died May 15, 1949

“I dwell in possibility.”

–Emily Dickenson, poet, died May 15, 1886

Asylum Fund All Hallows' has a fund to support asylum seekers in need. The fund is well used as unfortunately the need is great, and the fund has become somewhat depleted. Could you consider making a one-off or regular donation to the fund? You can do so by using the main church bank account and then letting Richard Barton (humanbead@hotmail.com) know that the gift is for the asylum seeker fund. For more information on how the fund is used please speak to Richard or Andrea Hill (groovelands@hotmail.com)

The advert for our new Priest was published in the Church Times and on their website. This was costly advert (over £1000) but the diocese have helped out by paying half of it. If you would like to make a donation towards helping to cover the advertising cost please contact Jan or Richard.

Thank you

Ways to donate to All Hallows:

- PARISH PANTRY: Don't forget your donation of food
- Please put donations of money on the collection plate on the small table by the back row of seats in church – regular donations are welcome including gift aid and direct debits to our bank account – see Richard for details
- Give your time to help out on with activities – café, gardening, events, gigs, working parties to clear and clean and to help with the Sunday Service (see Rob who does this rota)
